Funeral of C. F. Holdridge

The funeral of Charles Freemont Holdridge was held at his late home Tuesday afternoon, March 14, the Rev. George Young officiating. Burial was in the family lot in Evergreen Lodge cemetery. The bearers were Bert Mills, George Mills, Willard Boyce, F. F. Davis, H. O. Stiles and S. J. Davis. The services at the grave were in charge of members of Waterman Lodge, F. and A. M.

Mr. Holdridge was born 66 years ago, in the same house in which he died. He was the eldest son of David and Sarah Cook Holdridge and one of five children. One sister and a brother died several years ago, and the death of the youngest sister preceded his own by less than a week. One sister, Mrs. Willard Boyce, survives, and resides at Saranac Lake, N. Y.

All his early life was spent in Johnson, but for a number of years he had employment at Saranac, N. Y., until he was compelled by ill health to give up his position and return home, nearly 12 years ago. Much of the time in those years he had been a great sufferer, but was never discouraged, always seemed cheerful and had a pleasant word for all. He will be greatly missed by many friends in the community, where he had lived so long.

PRICE $140 DELIVERED

Saves Labor, Saves Time, Spreads Evenly, Increases the Yield, Makes More Money, Takes Drudgery Out of Work and Helps to Keep the Boys on the Farm.

Isn't It Time to Buy One?

Note some of these bang-up features:

- 1st—The only Spreader with seven roller bearings.
- 2nd—Rear wheels track with front, making light draft.
- 3rd—All steel beater; nothing to warp or rot.
- 4th—The wide spread.
- 5th—All steel main frame.
- 6th—The auto steering device which eliminates pole whipping and allows short turns.
- 7th—The steady double ratchet feed in place of the old style worm feed that has given so much trouble.
- 8th—The tight bottom and angle steel conveyor.
- 9th—Low down, making it easy to load.

And last but not least, note our new low price of $140 delivered and all set up ready to hitch to.

Spring's work will soon be here and if you already haven't a spreader you cannot afford to go without one at these pre-war prices, as there is no piece of machinery on the farm that will pay you as big returns as this new International. For sale by
